Directions (61-70): Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given below it. Certain words are given in bold to help you locate them while answering some of the questions.

ISRAELI Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu was among the first world leaders to congratulate Narendra Modi after he led his party to a sweeping electoral victory in 2014. The two leaders have known each other for some time and have seemingly formed a mutual admiration society. When Modi was Chief Minister of Gujarat, he made a few trips to Israel. After taking over as Prime Minister, one of the first announcements he made was about making a visit to Israel. It has, however, taken him more than three years to fulfill his fervent desire to be the first Indian Prime Minister to visit the Jewish state. Israel's wars on Gaza have brought it much international opprobrium, but the National Democratic Alliance (NDA) government dispatched President Pranab Mukherjee to Israel in 2016 even as the Palestinians were protesting on the streets of Jerusalem, Ramallah and other occupied cities.

The Indian President, in fact, faced protests from Palestinian students when he visited Ramallah, where the Palestinian Authority (P.A.) is based. Modi, during his visit, did not even bother to go there. Unlike some other world leaders, Modi does not pretend to shed even crocodile tears over the fate of Palestinians. On paper, India still supports Palestinian statehood. When P.A. President Mahmoud Abbas visited New Delhi in June, the Indian Prime Minister reassured Palestinians of India's continuing commitment to a two-state solution. The Palestinian side has conceded that India has the right to strengthen its relationship with Israel but said that it should not come at their expense. China and India are Israel's biggest defence customers.

The huge profits Israel earns from arms sales is ploughed back into military research and production, which is used to further strengthen its oppression and occupation of Palestinian land. During Modi's visit, Netanyahu described the bilateral relations between the two countries as a "marriage made in heaven". When Netanyahu was in Beijing earlier this year, he said that Israel was the perfect junior partner China needed as it ascended to superpower status, and he used the words "marriage made in heaven" to describe the status of Israel-China relations. Israel's relationship with both India and China is purely transactional despite the Bharatiya Janata Party's (BJP) claim of ideological affinity with the ruling right-wing Likud Party led by Netanyahu.

The P.A., which has very little credibility in the eyes of ordinary Palestinians, is not in a position to influence many governments in the world. Its own wealthy patrons such as Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates are building strong relations with Israel. Brajesh Mishra, who was National Security Adviser to Prime Minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee in the first NDA government, had in a speech delivered to the American Israel Public Affairs Committee, an influential Jewish lobby group in Washington, called for a Washington-Tel Aviv-New Delhi axis in international politics. Today, that axis is a reality and has expanded to include Cairo, Riyadh and Abu Dhabi. Iran, not Israel, is today the designated arch-enemy of Gulf monarchies such as Saudi Arabia. Palestinians, with a disunited leadership, are more isolated and even more at the mercy and whims of Israel and its patron, the United States, than ever before.

Q61. Which of the following statement(s) signifies the importance of building international relationship?

- (I) Narendra Modi was the first Indian Prime Minister to visit the Jewish state Israel.
  - (II) Despite oppression from people in certain cities, the visit of Indian President to Israel was a great success.
  - (III) India is one of the largest purchaser of arms and ammunition from Israel.
- (a) Only (I) is correct
  - (b) Only (II) is correct
  - (c) Only (III) is correct
  - (d) Both (I) and (III) are correct
  - (e) All are correct

Q62. According to the passage, what does the phrase “marriage made in heaven” imply?

- (I) The cooperation between India and Israel is taking a new shape as the recent visit of Indian Prime Minister to the Jewish state has strengthened their diplomatic ties.
  - (II) Israel’s relationship with both India and China has evolved over the years and it shows their commonness to ideological stand.
  - (III) The bilateral relations between the two countries “Israel and India” or “Israel and China” are purely transactional, though they share a good political association.
- (a) Only (I) is correct
  - (b) Only (II) is correct
  - (c) Both (I) and (II) are correct
  - (d) Both (II) and (III) are correct
  - (e) All are correct

Q63. Which of the following statements is not TRUE in context of the passage?

- (a) Netanyahu in his visit to Beijing said that Israel was the perfect junior partner China needed as it ascended to superpower status.
- (b) It took almost three years to Indian Prime Minister to visit Israel after he made the announcement of a visit to the Jewish state.
- (c) China and India form the biggest customers of arms for Israel.
- (d) India’s relationship with Israel marks the ideological affinity with the ruling right-wing Likud Party led by Netanyahu.
- (e) All are true.

Q64. Why according to the passage is Palestine’s integrity disparaging among its own people?

- (I) Palestine has failed to influence many governments in the world.
  - (II) Its own wealthy supporters such as Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates are building strong relations with Israel.
  - (III) There is no unity and accountability among the governing bodies which has led the country the country to be in isolation.
- (a) Only (II) is correct
  - (b) Only (III) is correct
  - (c) Both (I) and (II) are correct
  - (d) Both (II) and (III) are correct
  - (e) All are correct

Q65. Which of the following statements does not form the part of the passage?

- (a) There is the issue of the Gaza Strip where a million and a half people, packed like sardines, are being blockaded and starved by Israel and Egypt.
- (b) During the Indian Prime Minister’s visit, the two countries inked many agreements in the areas of defence technology, agriculture, water conservation and space research.
- (c) After Donald Trump took over as President of the U.S., he has generally ignored the Palestinian leadership and said that the “two- state” solution is not sacrosanct.
- (d) Modi visit shows that Israel can improve foreign ties without a peace process.
- (e) All of the above
