Solutions

- 1) As a secretary implies many secretaries. But here only one secretary is required, therefore only "secretary" is appropriate.
- 2) Superman is a hypothetical term. With hypothetical terms, were is used with singular nouns also.
- 3) No improvement because when two people agree with each other on certain terms the "agree on" is used appropriately.
- 4) Here pen is the subject of the sentence which is addressed with 'either'. When 'either' is used as the subject of the sentence, then the verb is used in the singular form
- 5) Here 'wise' is used in the superlative form as 'wisest'. With superlatives, the article 'the' is used.
- 6) There is a comparison between people of Japan and people of America. Since the comparison is between plurals, "those of" instead of "than of" which is used with singular
- 7) "Done with" implies finishing something. Here the subject is likely to be punished for not completing the work. Hence, "done for" is used to imply that the subject will be punished by the manager.
- 8) "Pick up" means to improve or increase. "Pick out" means to choose, find or recognize in a group. "Pick on" means to criticize or punish. "Pick at" implies eating food in small pieces and without enjoyment. Since Rohan is upset, he will eat food in pieces without enjoyment. Therefore, he picked at food.
- 9) While using modal words in questions we use: 'wh' word + modal verb + subject + verb in the base form
- 10) Here the modal verb "must" is used with its base form "may". In this situation when modal verb is used with base verb, the verb is used in base form. Therefore, seen is replaced with see.
- 11) The preposition "for" is used with verb + ing. Therefore invite is replaced with inviting.
- 12) The modal verb "must" should be followed by the base form of the verb "be". Here must should be followed by have + past participle of be (been)
- 13) The correct for mat should be "not only + preposition....but also + preposition" as both the clauses should end with the same part of speech (here preposition).
- 14) "Ago" is used with past simple tense and not with present perfect tense
- 15) To demonstrate continuity of a past event we use past continuous tense and not past perfect continuous tense.
- 16) Here the sentence should be used in past perfect tense as it indicated unfinished actions that started in the past and continue to the present
- 17) When modal verb is used in the past tense, then it is followed by have + past participle form of verb (done)
- 18) When talking about actions and behavior, then the subject is followed by verb + being + (adverb) adjective.
